

Goggle at Gaggles but Hide from a Pride
by Mike Downs

Should you goggle at gaggles?

Sure.

Grab some binoculars. Give it a try.

You'll spot noisy geese flying up in the sky.

Should you hike with a troop?

Bring bananas.

Check with your parents. I'm sure it's all right.

Marching with monkeys would be quite a sight.

Should you scream at a murder?

Of course.

Scream as loud as you can. It's always great fun.

To watch nervous crows flap away one by one.

Should you hide from a pride?

Absolutely!

If you ever see lions cavorting in bunches,

They might be out looking for kids for their lunches.

Should you swim with a fluther?

Bad idea.

A fluther of jellyfish looks really neat,

But they'll give you welts from your ears to your feet.

Should you sit on a cete?

If you like wild rides.

Reclining on badgers. Now there's a strange sight.

If that's what you do, then you'd better hold tight.

Should you bathe with a bask?

Be careful!

Though crocs in a bask may wear a big smile,
They're thinking of you as dessert all the while.

Should you ride on a bike?

Don't do it.

You won't have to balance. You surely won't fall.
But riding on ants would be no fun at all.

Should you duel with a sord?

Good luck.

Dueling with ducks would be crazy to do,
Unless your opponent has dueling ducks too.

Should you eat peas on a pod?

Can you swim?

If you eat your peas there, you'll have a great tale,
Because you'll be eating on top of a whale.

Should you paint with a zeal?

Why not?

Bring all of your colors, from pastel to bright,
Though most of the zebras prefer black and white.

Should you hang with a gang?

Maybe.

You might think it's cool, but what would you do,
With bunches of buffalo following you?

Should you tie a knot?

Yikes!

Tying a knot with a handful of snakes,

Would probably give you a case of the shakes.

Should you hug a family?

Of course. Yes. Do it!

Hugging a family is always great fun,
Give each single person a squeeze one by one.

But...

To avoid any screaming or unforeseen roars,
Make sure that the family you're hugging is YOURS!
